BUDAPEST

Budapest, the capital of Hungary, is one of the largest metropolitan centres in the area with a population of over 2 million people. It is a 2000-year-old settlement bisected by the majestic Danube River. It is an incredibly scenic city with the river winding through it, crowned by her glorious bridges. The architecture is a turn-of-the-century medley of Baroque, Art Nouveau and Neo-Renaissance. Buda, the old and historic part of the city lies on the west bank; Pest, the pulsing downtown area on the east.

The city has dozens of baths and healing spas; a thriving cultural life accented by music; hundreds of first class restaurants, gambling casinos and jazz clubs.

Budapest, known as the 'Queen of the Danube', charms visitors with its rich history and unique cultural heritage, as well as its bustling streets, vibrant calendar of events and atmospheric restaurants and cafés.

As the capital of Hungary, Budapest's enjoys an interesting history for visitors to discover. The city also has very cosmopolitan elements including great shops, cultural entertainment and restaurants, as well as a buzzing nightlife scene. Budapest enjoys a range of interesting attractions including medicinal baths, caves and nature reserves.
